

AIDS Day Awareness Programme 2021

World AIDS Day is celebrated on December 1st. This day is celebrated to create awareness about AIDS and HIV. This year the day was celebrated in Association with Red Ribbon Club Kozhikode unit for students of Government ITI College, Malikkadavu, Kozhikode under the guidance of Dr. Pratibha Dabas, HOD of Community Medicine Department, Dr. Krishna Raj, Assistant Professor, Dr. Sobin Sunny, Assistant Professor, Mr. Praveen, Health Inspector Malabar Medical College and RC.

Program objectives

To create awareness among college students about HIV and AIDS

The source of infection and how to prevent it

Program components

Awareness talk by Dr. Sobin Sunny, Assistant Professor MMC and RC

Awareness talk by Dr. Sreedevi, house surgeon Community Medicine Department

Awareness talk by Dr. Sreelakshmi house surgeon in the Department of Community Medicine

Flash mob done by MBBS students of MMC&RC

Display and explanation about the importance of HIV and AIDS through pictures and charts

Program was attended by the students of Government ITI College, Malikkadavu, Kozhikode & staff of Government ITI College.

Inauguration speech by ITI Principal, Mr. Devassi P V

Speech by Mr. Adwaith, Students union chairman, Malabar Medical College

Seminar on HIV/ AIDS prevention by Dr. Sobin Sunny, Assistant Professor

Seminar on HIV/AIDS transmission and prevention by Dr. Sreedevi, House surgeon

Seminar on HIV/AIDS clinical features and importance of testing by Dr. Sreelakshmi P, House surgeon

Dance performance by students of Malabar Medical College

Seminar on HIV/AIDS prevention by Dr. Sobin Sunny, Assistant Professor