7) Accordingly, a re-scrutiny of all documents was carried out. The committee observed the following:

This course is designed to manage patients with critical illness and hence the graduands need high quality individual hands on training and one to one teaching. Being a four-year course, the number of students at the end of four years should also be taken into account for such individualized training. A larger strength will be difficult to be accommodated in the highly restricted areas like ICUs with critically ill patients. For example, if 20 students are admitted in the first year, after 4 years, 80 students will have to be accommodated and trained which is impractical and ineffective for the students and unsafe for the patients. Hence the restriction of number of admission is absolutely essential with regard to the faculty, students, ICU facilities, Pulmonary function tests and other essential entrustable competencies required for the course and further practice of graduates. The above mentioned facts were analyzed threadbare by the committee and the recommendation of sanctioning four seats was finalized.

8) In the meantime, taking into consideration the above facts and examining the matter in detail, the university decided to reduce the admission capacity of B.Sc Respiratory Technology to a maximum of 4 seats depending upon the availability of infrastructure and faculty vide UO read (8) above.

9) The whole matter was placed before the Sub Committee of the Governing Council once more and vide paper read (7) above, the Subcommittee recommended to grant Provisional Affiliation for starting B.Sc Respiratory Technology course with 4 seats for the academic year 2024-25 at Malabar Medical College Hospital and Research Centre, Kozhikode.
