OUR SPEAKERS

The programme commenced with Dr. Aswathi Mohan (2nd year post graduate in Biochemistry) introducing the first speaker for the day Dr. Biju George (Associate Professor- Community) who was our guest speaker, who- Introduced Good clinical practices to the delegates.

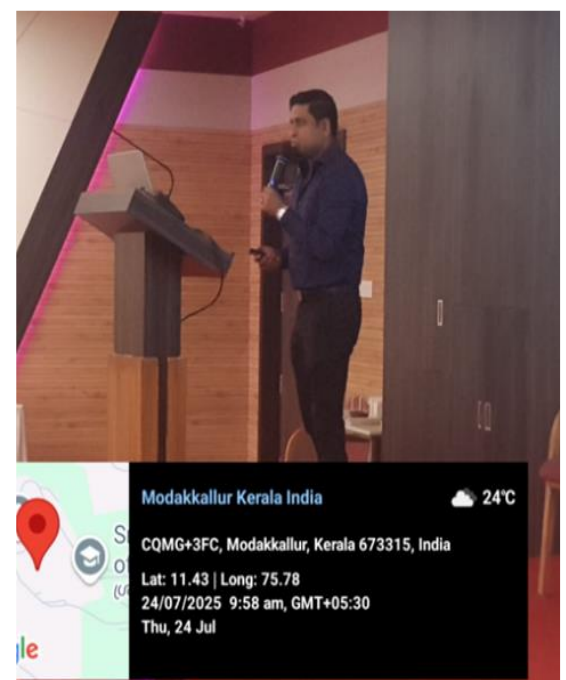

Introduction to good clinical practice was followed by Good clinical Practice in the era of AI by Dr. Krishna Raj, who mesmerised the delegates with AI generated pictures and relevant medical apps which can augment the efforts of the postgraduates in patient care. He also emphasised that one cannot solely rely on AI, but should also apply their clinical acumen.

This was followed by a talk by in house speaker Dr. Paul Mathai (Professor-Pharmacology) on Brief introduction to NDCT rules 2019, and New drug and Clinical trial rules.

Following tea break Dr. Biju George's second talk on Ethical guidelines in Biomedical Research was enlightening with discussion of the Nuremberg code and how the guidelines came into effect and a brief summary of the guidelines. Following which we had the inaugural ceremony.

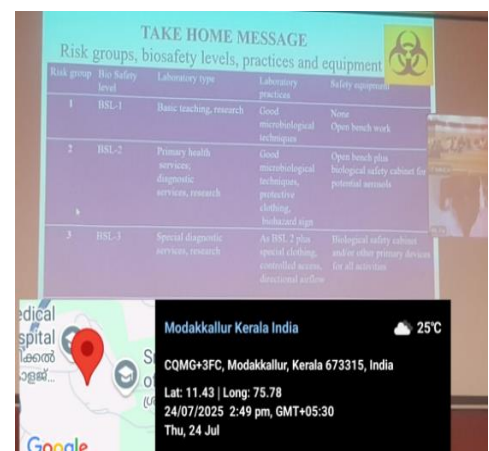

Welcome address was given by Dr. Sneha Henry, which was followed by prayer song by our second year student, and lighting of the lamp ceremony. The chairman Shree Anil kumar sir gave the presidential address, which was followed by the Medical Superintendent Dr. Raveendran MK sir's address. The presidential address was give by PG vice- principal Dr. Paul O Rapheal. Vote of thanks by MEPCON organising secretary Dr. Shilpa Karir.

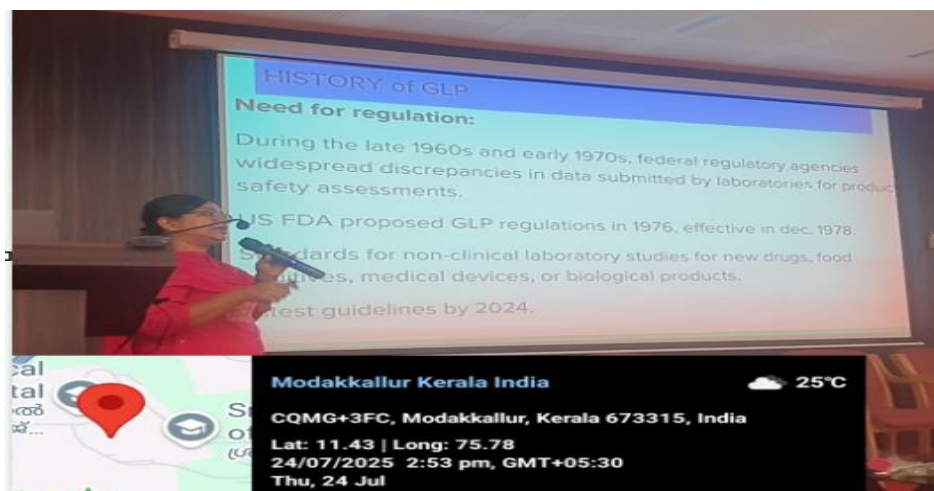

Dr. Padmaja Nair (Professor in Pharmacology) talk on Informed consent in Clinical Research was exhaustive with details for the need for consent and all the components that should be included in consent. It was made interesting by including clinical scenarios and dilemmas.

In the post lunch session Dr. Ramakrishna Pai (Additional Professor, AIIMS, Department of Microbiology- guest speaker talked about Biosafety in laboratories and about different levels of BSL.

This was followed by Dr. Sneha Henry (Professor- Biochemistry), in house speaker who talked about different types of laboratories and gave an introduction to Good laboratory Practice ICMR guidelines.

MEU coordinator Dr. Sily Sreedharan's efforts in guiding and coordinating the speakers and behind the scene activities was deeply appreciated. The workshop was well applauded both by the delegates and the administration.

Dr Sneha Henry

Organising chairman.
