

Report of Revised Basic Course Workshop – 3

The 3rd Revised Basic Course Workshop was conducted at MEU Hall, 7th floor, Academic block of Malabar Medical College Hospital & Research Center from 22.9.22 to 24.9.22. The program was conducted by the MEU team of MMCH & RC under the leadership of Dr. Rijesh (MEU Coordinator). The program conduction was observed by Dr. Fasna (Government Medical College, Calicut). The three days program was conducted successfully with awesome feedback from the participants. The last day was graced by the presence of Hon. Secretary Dr. Sudha Anil (Secretary & Medical Director - Operations). She felicitated the occasion and distributed the certificates to all participants.

Day 1

The sessions were preceded by a pretest, following which an Ice breaking session was conducted by Dr. Ramidha with the help of other MEU Members, where a Dumb charades game was enacted by each team and the other teams guessed the situation enacted out. This was followed by self-introduction by the participants.

This was followed by group dynamics and a fun team activity where Maveli and team had to cross safely over troubled waters, using a bridge made of banana leaves. Principles of adult learning session was chaired by Dr. Narayanan P V (Principal MMC) & Dr. Raju. Activity conducted was – list out the difference between Andragogy & Pedagogy.

Following tea break the next session was on goals, roles & competencies, it was conducted by Dr. Shwetha & Dr. Sneha. Activity: Participants had find the department wise gaps in IMG. IMG Topic was introduced by Dr. Ajit Bhaskar followed by Learning domains by Dr. Lakshmi and Dr. Ramakrishna Pai. Activity was to classify the scenarios given in the booklet into different domains.

Lunch was followed by Objective writing by Dr. Paul and Dr. Ramakrishna Pai where competencies & SLO (Specific Learning Objectives) were elaborated on.

The workshop which followed enabled each team to choose a clinical competency. The final session for the day was on introduction to assessment by Dr. Binub.

Activities between sessions enabled good team spirit among the participants and every member got a chance to participate. Everyone was encouraged to come up with a summary of the day's activity. Different activities like brainstorming, flipped class room were demonstrated during the course of the day.

Day 2

Started with summary of the previous day, followed by Innovative teaching by Dr. Paul and Dr. Shameem. Activity included was fish bowl (both open & closed) on general topics was enacted by the participants.

Followed which a workshop by Dr. Narayanan P V and Dr. Ramakrishna Pai to choose various teaching method for the team's respective competency, using the hand copy of the competency booklet down loaded from NMC Website.

Lesson plan was taken by Dr. Pratibha as a post lunch session. Activity: using the booklet participants had to write a lesson plan.

Assessment planning was conducted by Dr. Narayanan and Dr. Ramidha. Activity was finding out the mistakes in a set of MCQs.

Internal & Formative Assessment was the last topic of the day was conducted by Dr. Sily and Dr. Geetha.

There was active participation by all attendees in all the session, and the booklet provided was thoroughly put to use.

Day 3

The third day started with reflection of day- 2 followed by teaching clinical & practical skill by Dr. Ajay activity was teaching - knot tie using one-minute Preceptor & SNAPPS. Dr. Paul O Raphael took over the assessment of clinical & practical skills where many videos were shown. Activity was: 2OSCE & 1OSPE stations were set up. Following which AETCOM skits were enacted by each team, on various themes.

Lunch was followed by AETCOM modules by Dr. Soumya and Dr. Shrinath. AETCOM booklet and its components were introduced.

SDL through technology was explained by Dr. Binub and feedback by Dr. Pratibha. Educational networking by Dr. Sily. Certificates were distributed by the administration to all participants followed by Prize distribution to teams which performed well in different aspects & activity. Vote of thanks was given by the MEU Coordinator Dr. Rijesh.

The sessions were lively and interactive it was well appreciated by both the Observer Dr. Fasma K A & by all the participants.

Feedback & Posttest was collected. Certain shortcomings like lack of A C facility were noted and will be rectified in the next session.